HOUSE KNOCKS OUT CANNON'S RULES
 BUT CHAMP CLARK AND HIS "ALLIES" ARE DEFEATED BY ANTI-BRYAN WING OF DEMOCRACY — FITZGERALD AMENDMENT ADOPTED AFTER STORMY SESSION.
 Washington, March 16.—Yesterday, after one of the stormiest sessions in its history, the House adopted, by a vote of 211 to 172, a resolution by Mr. Fitzgerald (Democrat) of New York, whereby the rules were amended in several important particulars.
 Its adoption was accomplished only after the "insurgents", with the aid of the Democrats, with one or two exceptions, had won a decided victory by voting down a resolution by Mr. Dalsell making the unamended rules of the Sixtieth Congress applicable to those of the present Congress.
 As analyzed by parliamentarians, the amendment makes three important changes. First, it establishes a "calendar for unanimous consent" the effect to which is to enable a member to have a proposal brought before the House without having to go to the Speaker for recognition. Second, when consideration of a bill is concluded and the previous question is ordered, the rules heretofore have provided for a motion to commit with or without instructions. It has been the practice to recognize a member of the majority party to make this motion, and thus prevent the minority from offering such instructions as it may desire. The new rule gives the minority the preference in making such a motion and thus enables them to get a record vote on propositions which would otherwise be settled in the committee of the whole where no record vote is possible. Third, it provides the calendar Wednesday by requiring a two-thirds instead of a majority vote to set it aside. Fourth, it is further argued that the amendment will have the effect of preventing favoritism by the action of the committee on rules in special cases.
 A prominent feature of the Clark resolution was an amendment providing for a committee of fifteen members to revise, amend and codify the rules. An adopted Fitzgerald amendment makes no change in the present method of the selection of the committee on rules, which is made by the Speaker, nor does it make any change in the method of selecting committees.
 Before the members of the Bridgeport Group of the Alliance Francaise, last evening at the Stratfield, an admirable presentation of one of La-biche's clever comedies, "Le Gram-maire", was given by five of the members. The part of M. Camousat, whose weakness in French grammar is remedied by his daughter's careful recopying of his political discourses, was portrayed admirably by M. Napoleon Bissonnette. M. Michel Bissonnette was equally skillful in the character of Machut, veterinary surgeon.
 M. Le Pienne Seguin acted most convincingly the role of the learned anti-quarian, whose hobby for collecting Roman antiquities has become a mania.
 The character of Jean was cleverly interpreted by M. Swan, whose facial expressions and gestures were most amusing.
 The part of Blanche, the charming daughter of M. Caboussat, was excellently given by Miss Louise Warren.
 Before the presentation of the comedy Miss Adams and Miss Hallock rendered a charming vocal selection, "Allez, quand on vous aime", and "Les Hirondelles". The incidental music in the play was composed for the occasion by M. Brisabois, who is directing of "La Marsellaise" and "The Star Spangled Banner" by drum and piano by Mr. Wooster and Mr. Brisabois. A unique feature of the evening and was highly appreciated by all.

SUNDAY SALOON BILL IN
 Permits Opening in New York Between 1 and 11 P. M.
 Albany, March 16.—Senator Brough yesterday introduced Mr. Been's proposed excise law amendment, which would give New York saloons the right to keep open between the hours of 1 and 11 p. m. on Sundays and restrict the present Raines law hotels. Senator Raines is bitterly opposed to even a serious consideration of this bill.

AUTOISTS' RIGHTS IN ROAD.
 Only Equal to Footmen's, Court Says—Injured Policeman Gets Verdict.
 White Plains, March 16.—The first policeman in Westchester county to receive a verdict against an automobilist for running him down when he tried to stop him for violating the speed laws is John Callahan. He got a verdict of $1,000 yesterday before Justice Morschauer against William P. McCord of Greenwich, Conn.
 Callahan sued Mr. McCord for $50,000 for injuries he received on July 4, 1907, when he was on guard at an automobile "trap" at Pelham Manor. The policeman said that he waved a red flag at McCord to stop as he was going forty-six miles an hour, and that instead of obeying the signal McCord ran over him and he was seriously injured. Justice Morschauer's charge to the jury will be of great interest to automobile owners. Among other things he said:
 "The rights of footmen and drivers of autos in the highway are equal and they must exercise such care as circumstances demand. Neither has the superior right. Both have the right to use the highway and each is equally restricted to the exercise of his rights and the corresponding rights of others. Each is required to regulate his own use by the observation of ordinary care and caution to avoid receiving injury as well as of inflicting injury upon another. The defendant was bound to anticipate that he might meet persons at any point in the highway. He must therefore keep a careful lookout for them and have his car under such control as will enable him to avoid injury to any one."
